ADDITIONAL GAINS FOR THE ALLIES

French and British Driving a Wedge Into British Lines on the Somme Front

(Associated Press)
London, Sept. 29.—New drives by the French last night and the British this morning resulted in the capture of additional ground on the Somme front. The French reported a gain between Fregicourt and Morval in the direction of Saillly, where a wedge has been driven into the German lines between Bapaume and Peronne. The British reported taking a strongly fortified farm a quarter of a mile southwest of Lesars, which is about three and a half miles from Bapaume.

BATTLESHIPS OF BRITAIN

Will Have the Biggest Naval Guns in the World

(Associated Press)

Washington, Sept. 29.—Battleships equipped with 18-inch guns are under construction in England, according to unofficial advice, which are given credence by naval officials here. These are three inches bigger than any afloat and are two inches bigger than those proposed by the United States. Navy officers say that sixteen-inch guns can shoot as far as a vessel can be seen under the most favorable circumstances, so they believe if England is really building larger ones they expect to use them against land fortifications.

EXCELLENT WORK OF Y. M. C. A.

It Has Greatly Improved the Morals of the British Army

(Associated Press)

London, Sept. 29.—There isn't anything like as much drunkenness in the British army as there used to be. Lord French attributes much of this improvement to the great work done by the Young Men's Christian Association and kindred bodies. They have established innumerable substitutes for the canteen which Thomas Atkins has found much more attractive and much less expensive. They provide wholesome refreshment and harmless recreation for him. And religion, too—if he wants it. Often he helps himself to all three.

LOST THEIR LEADER

Homestead Robbers Met a Hot Reception on Shokoloskee Island

Fort Myers, Sept. 29.—One of the four men who are wanted for robbing the Homestead bank Sept. 15, was shot and killed on Shokoloskee island, off the Everglades, on the west coast of Florida, yesterday afternoon. He was identified as Leland Rice, said to be the leader of the band. When the man named Rice landed on the island for provisions he was challenged by Rollo Wiggins, an island resident. The shooting followed followed quickly. The three companions of the slain man are reported to be on an island nearby and officers have started to hunt for them.

(Associated Press)

LAW WAS NOT LUCID

Consequently Recorder Imposed the Lightest Fine Possible on Visiting Milliners

Involved in the milliners' case before the city recorder yesterday and this morning is the question as to whether or not the milliners that have been coming to Ocala for several seasons for brief periods should pay the license of a merchant, or the license of an itinerant vendor. The recorder decided that the milliners coming here to do business but for a brief period were itinerant vendors, the license tax for which is $50. The two milliners charged with doing business without this license were fined $2 and costs. They had taken out a merchant's license, which amounts to $5 for the first $1000 of stock, and $1.50 for each additional $1000 of stock.

The question, in its larger sense, is whether or not anyone conducting a business here for a brief period, competing with permanent merchants, should pay a larger tax. It is a question as to whether the permanent merchant should be favored.

The two milliners held to be itinerant vendors appear to have had difficulty in finding out just what license they should pay. There seems to have been no way to determine whether they were itinerant vendors except by going to court. This done the milliners in the case say that it is not worth their while to stand the cost of an appeal.

The question was brought to an issue by the local milliners, who insisted on the officers taking action.

The local milliners say they do not think it is right that when they stay here the year round, and help bear the public burdens, that anyone should come in from the outside, pay a nominal fee and then skim the cream off the business. They take the same position, in fact, that the local merchants take toward peddlers.

It is regrettable, however, that the visiting milliners could not have been informed of the exact bearing of the law before they were subjected to the inconvenience and expense of legal action. Both these ladies have many friends here, who greatly regret the annoyance they have had.

PROFANITY OF PRINTERS

(Mr. Dooley)

"I don't believe in profanity, Hinny—just as a reg'lar thing. But it his'n't used an' it's places. F'r instance, it is isintial in some shades. No man can be a printer without swearin'. 'Tis impossible. I mind want I want to a printin' office where a friend iv mine be th' name iv Don-ovan held cases, an' I heard th' foreman say:

"What gentleman is settin' A thirty?" he says.

"I am," says a pale gentleman with black whiskers, atin tobacco in the rear iv th' room.

"Thin," says th' foreman, 'ye blankety-blank blacksmith, get a move on ye. D'ye think this is a annyooal incylopojee?" he says.

"Iv'erbody swore at ivrybody else. Th' little boys runnin' around with type prattled innocent profanity, an' after awhile th' editor came in an' he swore more than anybody else. He swore with enthusyasm an' acc'racy. I wisht I cud raytimber what it was he called th' czar of Rooshya f'r dyin' just as th' paper was goin' to press. I cud've often used it since, but it's slipped me mind."

ANTHONY

Anthony, Sept. 27.—Last Thursday morning early, white men and colored, with hoes and rakes began gathering at the cemetery to clean up and beautify the grounds. They worked faithfully until the noon hour, when the ladies selected a place under a spreading oak tree to have dinner, which consisted of all the good things imaginable. After that important event was over, the men resumed their work, while the ladies gathered in groups and enjoyed a social time in a pleasant way. Late in the afternoon the work was completed and all gathered their tools together, leaving the cemetery in good condition, with a neat appearance, showing there had been no idlers there.

Friday morning the sad news came that Mrs. Tydings had passed away and would be laid to rest here by the side of her husband and son. Dr. J. M. Gross of Ocala, conducted the service and made a very appropriate address.

Twenty-eight years ago the writer with a family landed here from the far west, strangers in a strange land, and distinctly remembers the kindness in both word and deed extended to us from Mrs. Tydings. Her association was a benediction; I still remember the helpful, valuable lessons learned from her. I wonder if we always appreciate kind words and deeds as we should. As a personal friend and observer, I think it can truly be said of her she hath done what she could.

It seems this has been a time for accidents. Friday morning little Alma Hamilton, the three year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Will Hamilton was seriously burned with boiling water. The accident was caused by a pillar under the kitchen giving way, which caused the kitchen stove to tilt, the kettle of water, which was on it, pouring on the child. She was taken to the hospital Sunday morning, but died at three o'clock in the afternoon. She was brought home in a little white casket. The funeral services were held Monday morning at the Methodist church, and were conducted by the pastor, Rev. Rape. The family has the sympathy of their friends in this, their sad bereavement.

Last Friday Granvil Priest, the old child of Mr. and Mrs. John Priest, who had only recently returned from the hospital where he had been for sometime suffering from a broken thigh, had the misfortune to fall and break the same thigh again. He was carried back to the hospital to undergo another painful operation. The friends of the family deeply sympathize with them.

We are glad to report that the little son of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Burk, who is also an inmate of the hospital, having both arms broke, is getting along nicely.

Mr. F. W. Bishop, motored to Citra Sunday afternoon taking Mr. and Mrs. Milligan, Miss Grace Milligan and Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Howell with him. All spent a very pleasant hour with Mrs. Hagen.

Miss Cora Griffen left Friday for Palatka, where she will teach this winter.

Two Guinn brothers, with their families have moved here from Gainesville and are occupying one of the Howell cottages.

Miss Myrtle Shealy, who spent her early school days here, but three years ago moved with her family to Georgia and graduated at the Piedmont High school, was married last week to Mr. Roy McJunkin. Following the wedding ceremony a dainty lunch was served, after which the bridal party left for South Florida. They were given a shower by their friends and many useful presents were received. They expect to make their home in Florida.

Dr. Basken, from Dunnellon, has been here for a few days attending his uncle, Dr. Bob Basken, 82 years old, whose death is expected hourly.

SHADY

Shady, Sept. 26.—Mrs. A. C. Deas who has been visiting in Ocala two or three weeks, is now with her daughter, Mrs. Sam Redding.

Mr. H. A. Caruthers and niece, Miss Blanche Miller of Silver Springs, visited Mrs. Zeb Freeman Friday.

Miss Louise Albertson went to Weirsdale Friday evening and returned Sunday.

Mr. Sam Redding was taken suddenly and violently ill Thursday. An Ocala physician was sent for and soon relieved him some. Mr. Redding is better, but very weak yet.

Miss Bonnie Purvis is attending school in Ocala again this term.

We are looking for the well digger. Where is he?

Mr. and Mrs. Merritt Morison have the sincere sympathy of their friends in the loss of their baby boy last week. The little fellow was only sick a week when the death angel came and carried him "over there" to rest safely "in the arms of Jesus" till the loved ones here cross over. The little body was laid to rest in the cemetery at Heidville, where some of Mrs. Morrison's people are buried.

Mr. and Mrs. Barnes entertained a few young people Monday evening in honor of Mr. Needham Purvis, who is here on a short furlough. Needham is looking quite fit and is a handsome
